

AN ERGONOMIC PHILOSOPHY

Business Era

Welcome to the world of Fetch, where every ergonomic need gets an identity of its own. With a vision for quality and utility, we bring the realm of office furniture into a great space open for innovation and reimaging. From sleek workstations to supportive seating, our collections are crafted to enhance focus and productivity. We believe that form should follow function, beautifully and thoughtfully. Every piece is a result of careful design thinking that puts human comfort at its core. Our quality standards and commitment to excellence set us apart from being just a place for office furniture to ergonomic pieces that connect to the needs of every dream keeper out there. With a legacy of creating the most welcoming workspaces, our journey continues to inspire people and passion.

About Us

Fetch is the name of a result-driven group that has been advocating for change in the realm of ergonomics in the workspace and human life. Established in 1983 under the name Galaxy Seating Solutions, we have over forty years of experience in premium office furniture craftsmanship and quality engineering. With an exemplary team that keeps things structured, the fabric, finishes, and accessories create an aesthetic and ergonomic aura within our extensive range of over 250 premium products. We understand that comfort is not a luxury; rather, it's a necessity that fuels performance and well-being. Every detail, from lumbar support to armrest angles, is engineered with the end-user in mind. Our in-house R&D division works closely with designers to anticipate trends and deliver cutting-edge solutions. Innovation, for us, is a daily pursuit, not a milestone. As a team that works on the chemistry of workspace design, our brand is committed to offering competitive prices and reliable service assurance. In an era where workspaces are becoming habitats, Fetch represents the value of bringing balance to everyday life.

Mission & Vision

Fetch is committed to delivering premium office furniture that combines quality, durability, and bespoke designs to elevate workplace aesthetics and comfort. Our mission is to craft solutions that seamlessly blend sophistication with functionality, meeting the diverse needs of modern work environments. Every workspace has its own story, and we aim to furnish it with purpose. We believe that great design contributes to greater well-being and clarity at work. Our focus remains on building environments that inspire productivity without compromising on style. We envision redefining workplace standards with furniture engineered for lasting performance and innovation. While our entire collection stands out, our elegantly designed chairs take precedence, offering great support and comfort to enhance productivity and provide an exceptional experience throughout the day.

Our Assurance to You

As part of our commitment, Fetch chairs and office furniture come with reliable service and support. We offer a 3-year warranty under specified conditions, ensuring a seamless and confident user experience. As part of our commitment, Fetch chairs and office furniture come with reliable service and support. If something doesn't feel right, we are just a call away. We believe that after-sales care is just as important as the product and the experience itself. Your comfort, trust, and peace of mind matter to us every step of the way.

The Ergono-holic Space

When a workspace becomes a second home for a person, it's essential that they truly feel at home. The mind-to-body connection should naturally align with great posture and light movements. This is a thrilling piece to have and excel the art of working smart. With enormous support and cushioning feel, the comfort is unreal.

Mighty Masterpieces

Our job doesn't end with assembling the chair; in fact, it begins there. The post-manufacturing inspections are crucial in ensuring the chairs live up to our promises. We follow stringent quality tests to ensure that all products meet a high standard of quality. To make things even fairer, we offer selective warranties for certain chair parts.
